Down at the Bistro, they got Salmanilla pudding on open faced bread
Down at the Bistro, the meatloaf surprise looks surprisingly like a fish head
Down at the Bistro, there's a funny green looking color in the cheese spread
Down at the Bistro, the ants and cockroaches are quite well fed.

You really got screwed on that deal

Down at the Bistro, they have a vintage label pisswater wine
Down at the Bistro, your better off in the homeless shelter soup line
Down at the Bistro, when you see the rats gag and puke, it's not a good sign
Down at the Bistro, the house coffee still sends shivers right down my spine

If you drink the water, bring a Strainer
Never get the soup desour, it's a no brainer

Down at the Bistro, the meat is always in a strange state of decay
Down at the Bistro, no one ever gets the "all you can eat" buffett
Down at the Bistro, we smuggle food in from the corner cafe

Down at the Bistro, Down at the Bistro,
Down at the Bistro, the smart people fled
