Stone Graves - Bret Unplugged

Sister in the farm house cooking up Sunday lunch when the stove gave out, the gas filled up the house fumes over took her and there she lay on the floor Papa gave the breath of life He begged his little girl to fight But she already made it to God's light

 $C \ G \ C \ G \ C \ G \ C \ G$

Brother on the tractor plowing the fields that morn When he heard his mama scream, he jumped into the corn The rig was still moving and it was still in gear He tripped and fell to the ground but he could not make a sound be-fore... the wheel of the tractor ran him down

Papa shed a tear and put the last stone on their graves They both looked down, and papa had nothing to say Mama knelt down as the tears rolled off her face She shook her fist in the air

All you could see was despair She screamed "Why Lord, did you take both my babes"

(Solo) (Outro fade) (OR) (come up with a better ending)

-----How Powderfinger ends-----Shelter me from powder on my finger Cover me with the thought that pulled the trigger Think of me as one you'd never figured Would fade away so young With so much left undone Remember me to my love, I know I'll miss her. GCG CG CG CG CG CG CG CG