

Drinking Irish Whiskey - Bret McBlarney © Bret Paluch 2020

D G D A

I stumbled up and down the street	to find a place with grub	DG
I see out the corner of me eye,	a good ol irish pub	DA
I first produced some Shillings	they produced a glass	DG
I say stand and deliver	for the barmaid's a foxy lass	DAD

Chorus-----

G	D
When I'm drinking Irish Whiskey	I think to myself (hmmm)
A	D
Sipping and a smiling	it's the best booze on the shelf
G (gag-meister, cinnamon crap)	D
All of you may have your vice	To me that's all gut rot
A	G D
I be having my favorite drink	for it really hits the spot

Well, I'll be going over	The cork and kerry mountains	DG
To find my favorite Irish bar	No time to be pout'in	DA
Captain Ferrell is bartending	At good old Molly's pub	DG
He's counting his money	pouring whiskey by the tub	DAD

Chorus

Biddy Mulligan pride of the coulomb	and everyone one of us	DG
Dicey Riley join in the group	to the pub without a fuss	DA
Stop by Tim Finnigan wake	shake hands with the reverend	DG
We'll stop by the Crather	And salute our fallen brethren	DAD

Chorus

Cheers to the merry plowboy	workin the fields every day	DG
To-the-boys in corduroy britches	dodging pitches for their pay	DA
If ya be wearin of the green	and hear the cannons roar	DG
A nation once again we'll be	come help and join the core	DAD

Chorus

A	G	D	A	D	A	DDD
I be having my favorite drink	for it really hits the spot
