        C             Am              F      G        C
There's an old man    sitting next to me,   making love to his tonic and gin

```
C                          Am          F              D7

C                        Am              F      G         C

Now John at the bar he's a friend of mine, he gets me my drinks for free
And he's quick with a joke and a light of your smoke but there's some place that he'd rather be
He says bill I believe this is killing me as the smile ran away from his face
Well I'm sure that I could be a movie star if I could get out of this place

Chorus

C Am F D
C Am F G C
```

Now Paul is a real estate novelist who never had time for a wife
And he's talking with Davy who's still in the navy and probably will be for life

<Whistle Solo x1>

C Am F D
C Am F G C

It's a pretty good crowd for a Saturday And the manager gives me a smile
Cause he knows that its me they've been coming to see To forget about life for a while
And the piano sounds like a carnival and the microphone smells like a beer
And they sit at the bar and put bread in my jar and say man what are you doing here?

Chorus
<Whistle Solo x1>
