You make a difference to me, repeat

As life takes it's turn we might wish for another,

And the swerves that we need to handle,

Writing songs and playing music is what I got to do,

F

Gets me through the day, what I want is quite different I beg of you,

We have browsed these rooms many times before,

It's the hardest of hards and that empty feelin',

If your fears a river and the tears soon to tumble

As I search thru the rooms of my heart

Just to find the corner of that Lonely room
